Win a two-week scholarship to New York

Write an essay to apply to the Qatar Doctor of the Future Scholarship for a chance to win a two-week educational trip to New York!

The invention of the Internet gave rise of social media, a recent phenomenon that creates virtual communities by transcending physical boundaries.

While social media platforms have enhanced our connectivity and range of interpersonal relationships, they have also introduced new dangers to our health. In your own words, write an 800-word essay that discusses the implications of social media for human health and wellbeing.

This competition is open to Qatari students in grades 10 and 11. Four winners will be chosen to go on a trip of a lifetime.
