

Weill Cornell Medicine-Qatar

Institute for Population Health

Population Health and Well-being Series

Traveler's Health: Risks, Recommendations and High-Altitude Considerations

Live Webinar

Apr 16, 2024

4:00 - 5:00 PM (Qatar Time)

Speaker

Dr. Rajiv Narula, MD

*Board Certified Family Medicine, Certified Travel Health,
Assistant Professor, New York Medical College,
Medical Director Occupational Health, Mid Hudson Regional Hospital,
Medical Director, International Travel Health Consultants,
Department of Transportation (DOT) Medical Examiner and Certified Medical Review Officer*

Rajiv Narula, MD is a graduate of St George's University School of Medicine. Undergraduate studies were completed at Boston University. Dr Narula completed his residency in Family Medicine at St. Mary's Hospital, Hoboken, New Jersey where he was elected by his peers to serve as chief resident. Following residency, Dr. Narula worked as an attending in Occupational Health at JFK Medical Center. Subsequently, he joined the Emergency Medicine department at Monmouth Medical Center. It was during this time that his interests were cultivated to start his own practice and learn about Travel Medicine. His involvement in a variety of fields has contributed to a solid foundation of evaluative skills that have enhanced his expertise.

In 1996 Dr. Narula, motivated by his desire to prepare patients for the health risks associated with international travel, founded International Travel Health Consultants. He currently has two locations in New York state. Dr. Narula has had the pleasure of providing services to numerous news outlets, the movie industry, major corporations, mission workers, diplomats, study abroad programs and leisure travelers.

Dr. Narula is Board certified in Family Medicine, Travel Health certified, a Department of Transport certified Medical examiner and a Medical Review Officer. Additionally, he has written articles for several travel publications and presented at the New York Times Travel Show. Castle Connolly has bestowed upon him the honor of Top Doctor in his field.