

Weill Cornell Medicine-Qatar

Global Institute for Population Health

Health and YOU Community Wellness Series

Navigating Parkinson's: Insights & Updates

This session will discuss Parkinson's disease, its diagnosis, and latest updates in the field.

Live Webinar
November 30, 2026
4:00 - 5:00 PM
(Qatar Time)

Speaker

Dr. Dhanya Vijayakumar

*Program Director, Movement Disorders Fellowship
University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston
USA*

After completing medical school at Weill Cornell Medicine-Qatar, Dr. Vijayakumar did her residency in neurology at Virginia Commonwealth University, Richmond and fellowship in movement disorders at Baylor College of Medicine, Houston.

She has served as Movement Disorders fellowship program director at Greenville Health Systems before moving on to University of Texas Medical Branch Galveston as Fellowship Director.

She is a clinician who sees patients with different movement disorders and also does procedures including Botulinum toxin for a variety of movement disorders and does management of Deep brain stimulator devices in patients with Parkinson's disease, Essential tremor, dystonia and Tourette syndrome.